- The laundry room equipment will now be replaced in May. The facilities will include a self-serve kiosk where you can use your debit/credit card for laundry purchases. The new equipment will not require the use of coins.
- The storm sewers have all been cleaned out and each manhole was jetted twice. This hadn't been done in over 15 years and will greatly improve the flow of storm water throughout the park.

3. New Homes:

- Bay Lake Estates will receive two new homes in the very near future (within weeks). These homes were originally ordered for another ELS community that can't take them, therefore, we do not know what models we will receive, what sizes they are or on what lots they will go on. The contractor has measured all available lots and will determine which ones are the most suitable for the models and sizes of the new homes.

VISIT CHARLESTON, SC

contributor – Michael M Kloian

If you read the editorial on visiting Savannah, GA in April's newsletter, when you do go there for a visit you may as well drive 2 hours and tour historic Charleston, SC and enjoy some of their plenty-to-see-and-do sites and fine food. Whenever my friend, Scott, came to visit me in Savannah, when I lived there, we would make a weekend trip to Charleston and stay at the Meeting Street Inn and Suites on Meeting Street and walk the Battery, take a paid walking tour of historic homes and paid garden tours and of course hit his favorite restaurants. Scott coordinated his visit to Savannah so we could enjoy the walking tours in Charleston. He purchased tickets in advance (good idea!).

I do recall one particular garden tour where the owner of the home was sitting on a bench in her beautiful garden and I sat next to her. She was rather quiet and no doubt was taking in the beauty of her luscious garden. After a minute of silence, she began talking. "Are you a northerner?" she asked. I replied, "no ma'am." "You from the South then?" she continued. I said, "No ma'am." She then said, "You must be from either the North or the South?" And I replied, "Ma'am my parents came from Armenia in 1921. They are neither from the North or the South." She never said another word.

Charleston, the South Carolina port city founded in 1670, is defined by its cobblestone streets, horse-drawn carriages and pastel antebellum houses, particularly in the elegant French Quarter and Battery districts. The Battery promenade and Waterfront Park both overlook Charleston Harbor, while Fort Sumter, a federal stronghold where the first shots of the Civil War rang out, lies across the water.

Go to Trip Adviser or google Charleston to see the many things you can squeeze in while there for several days. You'll be glad you did.

Some highly recommended restaurants are, in no particular order: Diners Drive-ins and Dives (triple D) featured The Tattooed Moose twice on their show. I had the pleasure of eating their famous Duck Sandwich (featured on triple 'D') and French fries with fresh roasted garlic squeezed over the fries.

One of the very best fish tacos I've had was at Raw 167.

Hyman's is worthy of eating any food item from their seafood menu. If you see a street vendor handing out a coupon they pass out coupons for a free crab dip appetizer at Hyman's. Grab one or two and enjoy their yummy dip. Leave room for more.

For some of the best prime steaks and prime rib you must dine at The Chophouse.

And for desert go to the Planter's Inn for the largest slice ever and the best coconut cake. Your sweet tooth will love it.

Enjoy your visit to Charleston!!!

JULY 4TH LUNCH 2024

contributor Michael M Kloian 912-547-2416

It's official, on Thursday July 4th at 1:00 p.m. there will be a free lunch for residents, sponsored by ELS and our HOA. Guests pay only $7, at the clubhouse. The committee is Michael M Kloian (912-547-2416) and Brad Bixbee (978-223-3715). We will need several volunteers for 50/50, sign in folks at the door, collect money, set up, tear down and servers. Please call Michael or Brad.

The menu is: Burgers & Dogs on the flat-top grill. The condiments will be: Hot Dog Chili Sauce from Detroit, MI (my favorite). Chopped and caramelized onions, sauteed mushrooms, pickle relish, pickles, lettuce & tomato, mayo, mustard & ketchup and a variety of cheese slices will be on hand. Michael's famous baked beans will be on the serving table with and without pulled pork mixed in along with scratch-made mac & cheese. Pies, water, sweetened and unsweetened ice tea.

If you need a carry-out for one of our residents who may be a shut-in or may be unable to attend PLEASE put their name on the sign-up sheet and indicate carry out. This is for the purpose of making sure we have enough food on hand for everyone.

The sign-up sheet should be at the clubhouse before June 1st and will be pulled on Tuesday Wednesday, June 26th so we may properly prepare to feed the hungry mob.

Hear Better Now

Blair Post, HAS, BC-HIS, ACA

Board Certified Hearing Instrument Sciences
 American Conference of Audioprosthology

I heard the best statement from one of my clients. He said, "I need to hear better now, not in FIVE YEARS."

I didn't even realize how my lack of pushing or pressure to upgrade was actually a disservice to some clients.

Now I realize, since my clients are getting older their hearing will deteriorate over time. When these next few years are going to be their most active, engaged, involved and social, then these are the years they need to have the best option to hear clearly.

Being able to hear clearly provides confidence and ease in different environments.

My mom, MaryEllen, was profoundly hard of hearing and struggled with higher frequencies, like small children.

When we asked her to babysit, she said she was not confident being alone with Evan. It took us a while to understand her lack of confidence, because we knew she had raised two boys of her own.

When we asked her about her hesitation, she explained that she wasn't sure she would be able to hear his cries.

Looking back, it was probably this heightened anxiousness that prompted her to get a better-quality hearing aid that enabled her to hear with ease in these situations.

As we know, kids, whether our own or our grandkids, are chaotic and create complex listening situations.

If you are struggling to hear the grandkids in your life, call me.

MORE HELP NEEDED!

contributor Marion Brooks

We always need help. While some folks have signed up to chair certain events, several events need a designated chairperson to run the show, plan the menu, and find volunteers, etc..

Volunteers are always needed to chair and work each event. Some categories of volunteers are: Chairperson(s) to manage and plan the event, Kitchen Helpers (food preparation), Food Servers, Sink Duty (cleaning pots, pans, utensils), Set-up & Tear Down. To volunteer, please call the chairperson in charge of the event if you're inclined to assist.

As of this writing there is no chair person to organize our Memorial Day lunch.

YOUR MOST VALUABLE ACCOUNT

You probably have an online account that many crooks would value even more than your bank account. Really!

Hacking into your e-mail account might actually provide them easy access to all your other online accounts – including your bank and/or investment accounts. But you already knew that – right?

You did know that already if you've been an Event Alerts subscriber for a while. That's because an Alert went out not that long ago, describing how a Bay Lake resident narrowly escaped being victimized by a crafty crook pretending to be an Xfinity employee. Yes, he was trying to con the resident out of his e-mail password!

What exactly are the Event Alerts, you ask?

They are short e-mail “blasts” sent out whenever there are news items, announcements, events or activities you'd want to know about. The Bay Laker Newsletter is great, but like any printed information, it's pretty much out of date by the time you pick it up.

Alerts are the best way to stay on top of things at Bay Lake.

If you're not already a subscriber, becoming one couldn't be any easier. Just send Steve a request at: EventAlerts@SteveRollison.com

A brief “Please subscribe me,” along with your name, is all you need to send.

The Romeos (the men of BLE) meet for breakfast usually on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of every month. They leave the park at 8:45. PLEASE check the sign-up sheet in the clubhouse for the location and more details and to be certain breakfast is still scheduled.

NEWSLETTERS

The Bay Laker Newsletter will not be home delivered until this coming fall, maybe October. You can always access past newsletters on-line at www.BayLakeEstates.org. After May 1st you can pick up the Bay Laker Newsletter at the Clubhouse to stay informed for current and future events.

THE HUMANE THING TO DO (PLEASE)

contributor Michael M Kloian 912-547-2416

On March 17th 2024 a special aired on 60 Minutes about the Lithuanian people giving refuge to any Russian who left Mother Russia. They housed them, fed them, gave them jobs and welcomed them into their homes.

Kindness day is every day, no matter where folks live in this world of ours.

What I found most interesting about this segment is the U.S. has a base in Lithuania and they too are there to help any defecting Russian.

If you have a 'The Humane Thing To Do' story please submit this to the editor at editor@baylakeestates.org.

MIRACLES DO HAPPEN

contributor Michael M Kloian (912-547-2416)

Simone is back... Simone Biles returned to her first international competition since the Tokyo Olympics when she took part in the 2023 world gymnastics championships in Antwerp, Belgium — the same city where she won her first world title a decade ago at age 16. Simone won her 29th and 30th career medals at the World Artistic Gymnastics Championships on Saturday (October 8, 2023) in Antwerp, Belgium. The USA gymnast currently has 23 gold medals at the global event.

Since then, she has won eight national titles, 25 world medals, seven Olympic medals and sparked a national conversation about mental health.

Biles is also preparing to unveil a new skill on the world stage. She plans to become the first woman to complete a Yurchenko double pike vault – two backflips off the springboard in a piked body position – at a major international competition. If she puts it to her feet, the skill will be named after her.

Her gymnastics isn't the only thing that's different this time around. Biles has a new approach, both physically and mentally, for her return to the sport.

"I think we have to be a little bit more cautious about the way we do things," she said in a recent interview with the "TODAY" show. "Everything that we're doing leading up to [Paris 2024] is very intentional. We've kind of been playing it on the down-low this time, making sure mentally and physically are both intact."

After grappling with the "twisties" and pulling out of multiple events at the Tokyo Olympics in 2021, Simone took a break from the sport. The spatial disorientation condition is common in gymnastics and is typically temporary, but Simone took almost two years off to recover mentally and physically after the Olympics.

All I (the editor) can say is Welcome Back, Simone, and, "YOU GO" girl!

If you have a 'miracle' story to share, please send your story to editor@baylakeestates.org. Put NEWSLETTER in the subject line.

MY FAVORITE EASY RECIPE

contributor Michael M Kloian (912-547-2416)

HARD BOILED EGGS (stay at home food)

There's arguably no food more versatile than the egg. It can be cooked in so many ways that the 100 folds in a chef's hat are said to symbolize the 100 ways you can cook an egg, though there are at least 101 ways by my count.

Perhaps the most versatile preparation is the hard-boiled egg. Unlike soft-boiled eggs, which are only partially cooked resulting in a runny yolk, hard-boiled eggs are cooked all the way through. Delicious on their own, hard-boiled eggs are also the star of (or at minimum the best supporting actor for) dishes like deviled eggs, Cobb salad, and egg salad sandwiches.

While you may already know the difference between a hard-boiled egg and a soft-boiled egg, as well as how to cook the perfect hard-boiled egg with a creamy yet fully set yolk, there's plenty you likely don't know about this superfood. From their humble beginnings and nutritional profile to all the tricks for peeling them, here are 11 facts you should know about hard-boiled eggs.

With the rising price of eggs these days, you may be looking for ways to conserve. But for some, swapping out eggs for a chia or flax egg just doesn't cut it, especially if you are in the mood for scrambled eggs. (And not everyone is a fan of a tofu scramble.)

There are some great reasons to enjoy the "incredible edible egg." At just 80 calories, one medium egg contains 6 grams of protein, nearly 3 grams of unsaturated fats, and a wealth of vitamins and minerals including health-sustaining essentials: B vitamins, calcium, iron, magnesium, and vitamins A, D, E, and K (via a 2018 review in Cholesterol). Hence, the egg is a nutrient-dense capsule you can hold in one hand. And it is a convenient protein to cook.

Scrambling eggs can be done in less than 5 minutes. What's more, the simple act of adding a bit of liquid can elevate its appeal. Adding liquids such as water, milk or coffee cream can amplify the volume, so you may be able to use a little less (eggs) in your scramble and still feel you've gotten plenty of mouthfuls. Dairy or cream can provide a creamy and smooth texture to your scramble (rarely does one praise a batch of dry scrambled eggs). And some liquids, like soy sauce, can simply make it taste great!

MY FAVORITE FILM OR TV SHOW

contributor Michael M Kloian (912-547-2416)

THE HOLDOVERS, starring Paul Giamatti is a superb and heart-warming film.

This is a short description: A curmudgeonly instructor at a New England prep school remains on campus during Christmas break to babysit a handful of students with nowhere to go for the Holidays. He soon forms an unlikely bond with a brainy but damaged troublemaker, and with the school's head cook, a woman who just lost a son in the Vietnam War.

This film is a ‘must see’ movie. Giamatti’s acting is brilliant.
